Description

This 2014 Lexus GS 450h F Sport boasts a clear vehicle history, offering peace of mind for its next owner. This premium saloon features a powerful yet efficient 3.5 litre petrol hybrid engine, delivering an impressive 0-62mph acceleration in just 5.9 seconds. Inside, you'll find the F Sport trim, enhancing the driving experience with a luxurious feel. The cabin is equipped with a sunroof, allowing natural light to fill the space, and a Mark Levinson premium sound system paired with a 12.3 inch navigation and multimedia screen for an immersive audio and visual experience. Convenience is key with the smart entry and start system, enabling keyless entry and ignition, while Bluetooth connectivity keeps you connected on the go. The headlights automatically adjust to dusk, ensuring optimal visibility. The Lexus GS 450h F Sport stands out with its exceptional performance, indicated by its rapid 0-62mph time of 5.9 seconds, which is quicker than many other vehicles in its class. This model also benefits from a low insurance group, making it a more economical choice for drivers. The combination of its advanced hybrid technology, premium F Sport features, and sophisticated entertainment system, including the Mark Levinson audio and large multimedia display, positions this Lexus GS as a compelling option for those seeking a blend of performance, luxury, and efficiency.
