Description

Please note, no V5C document is available for the vehicle, a V62 application will be completed at the time of sale This 2014 Audi A4 TDI SE Technik presents a compelling proposition with its remarkably low mileage for its age, having covered just 95,000 miles. This well maintained example boasts a full service history and comes with a 6 month warranty for your peace of mind. Under the bonnet, you'll find an efficient 2.0 litre diesel engine, paired with the SE Technik trim. Notable features include DAB digital radio for enhanced listening, Audi Drive Select to tailor your driving experience, and Audi Hill Hold Assist for added convenience on inclines. The car also benefits from a Tyre Pressure Loss Indicator and a Bluetooth interface for mobile telephone preparation, keeping you connected and informed on every journey. The Audi A4 TDI SE Technik stands out with its desirable combination of features and its favourable position within a low insurance group, suggesting lower running costs compared to many similar vehicles. The inclusion of Audi Drive Select allows you to adapt the car's performance to suit your driving style or road conditions, while the Audi Hill Hold Assist provides a welcome helping hand when starting on a hill. These elements, alongside the comprehensive service history and the reassuring warranty, underscore the quality and care this Audi A4 has received, making it an attractive choice for discerning buyers.
