Description

This 2012 Fiat 500 Lounge is a truly exceptional find, boasting an incredibly low mileage of just 54,000 miles for its age and having had only two owners. This particular example comes with a full service history, ensuring it has been well cared for throughout its life. The Lounge trim level offers a refined experience, enhanced by features such as automatic climate control, front fog lights, and a choice of stylish interior finishes with either red leather and ivory ambience or black leather with black ambience. It also includes Blue&Me predisposition for TomTom, adding a touch of modern convenience. This Fiat 500 is a standout choice, particularly when considering its impressive fuel economy of 71 mpg, which is significantly better than many other vehicles in its class. Coupled with its low CO2 emissions, this makes it an economical and environmentally conscious option. Furthermore, the vehicle will be provided with a full 12 months MOT on purchase, offering peace of mind for its next owner.
