I pride myself on providing a personalised experience, treating all my customers on a 1-2-1 basis. Unlike many car traders, I don't believe in pressuring my customers into making a purchase. My aim is to make you feel comfortable and confident in your decision. I understand buying a car can be a daunting experience. That's why I hand-pick my cars, realistically price-check them, and ensure they have a clean HPI and accident history. I provide a MotorCheck History Report for your peace of mind, all my cars are inspected and undergo a full valet before being put up for sale. I offer a 3-month warranty which can be extended, so you can drive away with confidence. I don't buy from auctions or in bulk, I just dedicated my time to sourcing the right individual cars. I recognise car traders don't always have the best reputation, but I want to change that by demonstrating my integrity. I believe in only buying the best cars, which I personally hand-pick and travel the lengths of the UK to purchase only the best examples. I understand no one wants to travel to see a car only to find it isn't as described. That's why all my cars are rigorously checked and prepared before sale so come and take a look. If you're happy, drive away with a smile. If it's not for you, then it would have been a pleasure meeting you. I hope to see you soon!
