Description

An exceptional opportunity to own a true British icon — this beautifully presented 1966 MGB GT is a standout example that perfectly balances originality with careful restoration. Finished in elegant Ivory White with striking red accents, this early production model is complemented by a stunning red leather interior that captures the spirit of 1960s motoring. With just 36,000 miles from new, this MG offers a rare level of provenance and authenticity. Equipped with a desirable manual gearbox and overdrive, it delivers an engaging and refined driving experience, exactly as a classic grand tourer should. Approximately four years ago, the car underwent a sympathetic bare metal restoration, ensuring structural integrity and cosmetic excellence while preserving much of its original character — a testament to thoughtful ownership and respect for the marque. This is not just a car, but a piece of British motoring heritage, ready to be enjoyed or proudly displayed.
