Description

Signature Classics are thrilled to offer for sale this 1950 Jaguar MK V 3.5 Litre - 77,000 Miles - Superb Condition A truly elegant example of post-war British motoring, this 1950 Jaguar MK V 3.5 Litre presents beautifully in every respect. With just 77,000 miles recorded, this distinguished saloon has recently been recommissioned following a period of careful dry storage, and now performs as gracefully as it looks. Mechanical & Recent Works Under the bonnet lies Jaguar's legendary 3.5-litre straight-six engine, which was fully rebuilt just 700 miles ago. Since returning to the road, it has benefitted from a host of recent works to ensure reliability and smooth performance, including: Full service Reconditioned water manifold New hoses and HT leads New suspension components New brake pipes to master cylinder Brakes cleaned and adjusted New starter solenoid and new battery Electric cooling fan with master switch neatly installed beneath the dash Every aspect of the car has been maintained with care and attention to detail. The result is a refined and reliable classic that's ready to enjoy. Interior & Presentation Inside, this Jaguar exudes timeless craftsmanship. The leather upholstery has been beautifully restored, retaining its period charm while offering modern comfort. The wood trim has been refinished to a superb standard, and even the headlining has been carefully restored, completing a cabin that truly embodies the luxury of its era. Body & Condition The bodywork is in excellent condition, displaying a deep shine and consistent panel fit that speaks volumes about the quality of care this car has received. It's evident that no expense has been spared in preserving this 75-year-old classic. On the Road Accompanied by a fresh MOT for added peace of mind, this MK V offers a delightful driving experience, combining pre-war character with post-war refinement. Smooth, elegant, and commanding on the road - it represents a wonderful opportunity to own a genuine piece of Jaguar history. Lovingly owned and meticulously maintained, this Jaguar MK V is a fantastic example of historic motoring and an excellent investment opportunity.
